

DEPARTMENTS OF THE ARMY AND AIR FORCE
Headquarters, Missouri National Guard
Ike Skelton Training Site
2302 Militia Drive
Jefferson City, Missouri 65101-1203

JFECC-J1

31 July 2002

MEMORANDUM FOR All State ADSW Managers

SUBJECT: Active Duty Special Work (ADSW) Tour Request – Senior Mechanic

1. Reference AR 135-200, Chapter 6.
2. Request active duty for special work (ADSW) tour for an E5.
 - a. Sponsor Unit: Joint Force Engineer Component Command.
 - b. Duty Location: Annette Island, AK.
 - c. Immediate Supervisor: Motor Sergeant
 - d. Tour Dates: Start (O/A 17 Mar 03); End (O/A 19 Sep 03).
 - e. Length of tour: 187 days
 - f. Field Conditions: Field conditions apply while deployed to Annette Island.
 - g. Per-Diem: (no)
 - h. Billeting: Quarters available.
 - i. OHA: Not authorized.
 - j. Rations: Rations available.
 - k. Travel: Travel paid by IRT P&A funds sent to soldier's home state from NGB.
 - l. Dependent Travel Authorized: no.
 - m. Rental Car Authorized: no.
 - n. COLA: COLA authorized at garrison rate while deployed to Annette Island.

3. Soldier qualifications:

- a. Experience required:
- b. Skills/qualifications required: MOS qualified as 63B, 63W, or 63S. Military drivers license required.
- c. Minimum military and civilian education required: none
- d. Security clearance required: none

4. Project justification:

a. The project to be completed is serve as a Senior Mechanic for a joint task force conducting road construction operations in Southeast Alaska.

(1) By 21 Apr, the soldier will have completed familiarization with the task force maintenance and safety SOPs.

(2) From 22 Apr thru 19 Sep, the soldier will perform organizational and direct support maintenance on tracked and wheeled vehicles. Provide contact team support and perform vehicle recovery operations as required. Supervise other personnel in the performance of their duties.

(3) This is an on-going IRT mission.

b. Assigned personnel, AGR, or DA Civilian, cannot accomplish this project because this is a joint task force conducting a mission IAW the parameters of the IRT program. No AGR personnel are assigned to this project.

c. The need for this project was created by DoD as part of the IRT program.

d. The project is vital to the function of this office and the ARNG for the following reason(s): This project is the largest IRT project currently being undertaken. Adequate staffing is vital to ensuring the success of this large undertaking.

5. Point of contact for this request is Jerry McDaniel, CPT, JFECC LNO 573-596-0131 ext 6-7320.

JERRY M. MCDANIEL
CPT, EN, MOARNG
JFECC LNO

CF: NGB-ARO-O